Public Holidays Policy

Document ID: HR-POL-003

Company: Promote Health Analytics Pty Ltd

Version: 1.2

Effective date: 2026-01-01

Owner: People and Culture

Status: active

Applies to: full_time, part_time, probation ## 1. Purpose

This policy explains how Promote Health Analytics Pty Ltd identifies public holidays, records holiday absences, and manages employees whose work location or operational responsibilities affect holiday observance.

2. Scope

This policy applies to full-time and part-time employees. Contractor schedules are governed by their contracts unless the contract expressly adopts the company holiday calendar.

3. Definitions

3.1 Assigned work location

The office or approved work location recorded in the employee profile.

3.2 Public holiday

A recognised non-working day on the calendar applicable to the assigned work location.

3.3 Substitute day

An approved alternative day off used when operational work is performed on a public holiday.

4. Policy Requirements

4.1 Location-based observance

Public-holiday observance is based on the employee's assigned work location. Temporary travel or short-term remote work does not automatically change the employee's applicable holiday calendar. A permanent location change must be recorded before a different calendar applies.

4.2 Work on a public holiday

Managers must identify operational coverage needs as early as practicable. An employee must not assume that voluntary work changes the applicable holiday treatment. Any substitute day or alternative arrangement must be documented by the manager.

4.3 Part-time employees

A part-time employee observes a public holiday where it falls on a day the employee would ordinarily work. A public holiday on a non-working day does not create an additional paid day under this policy.

5. Procedures or Application

5.1 Calendar confirmation

People and Culture publishes or confirms the applicable location calendars. Employees who believe their recorded location is incorrect must request a profile correction before relying on a different calendar.

5.2 Public holiday during leave

A public holiday that falls within approved paid time off is not deducted from the paid-time-off balance when it is a recognised holiday for the employee's assigned location and ordinary work schedule. The leave record should be adjusted to separate the public holiday from paid time off.

5.3 Substitute-day recording

The manager and employee must agree on a substitute day and record it in the approved process. A substitute day should normally be taken within 60 calendar days of the public holiday.

5.4 Location and schedule records

The employee profile should identify the assigned work location and ordinary work pattern used to determine the applicable holiday. A temporary visit, personal trip, or short remote-work period does not change these records unless People and Culture approves the change. Where a roster or work pattern changes, the manager should ensure that the effective date is recorded. Holiday treatment should be based on the valid pattern for the date of the holiday, not a later or informal arrangement.

5.5 Operational planning

Teams that may need holiday coverage should identify essential activities, likely staffing needs, and substitute arrangements in advance. Managers should distribute requests fairly and avoid relying repeatedly on the same employees. A worker who performs urgent activity on a public holiday should record the work and notify the manager. The manager then confirms the appropriate substitute arrangement under this policy.

6. Exceptions and Escalation

- Emergency operational work may be assigned without normal advance planning, but the manager must document the reason and follow-up arrangement.
- Employees on international assignments require People and Culture review where the host and assigned-location calendars differ. ## 7. Responsibilities

7.1 Employees

Check the applicable calendar and raise location errors promptly.

7.2 Managers

Plan coverage and document substitute arrangements.

7.3 People and Culture

Maintain holiday calendars and resolve location-based questions.

8. Decision Rules

- If a public holiday falls on an employee's ordinary workday under the assigned-location calendar, the holiday applies.
- If the public holiday falls on a part-time employee's non-working day, no additional paid day is created.
- If an applicable public holiday occurs during approved paid time off, do not deduct that day from the paid-time-off balance. ## 9. Examples

9.1 Holiday during paid time off

An employee books five workdays of paid time off and one day is an applicable public holiday. Only four days are deducted from the balance.

9.2 Temporary interstate work

An employee works temporarily from another state for one week. The assigned-location calendar continues unless People and Culture approves a location change.

10. Frequently Asked Questions

10.1 Which public holidays apply to me?

The calendar for your assigned work location applies.

10.2 Do I receive another day if a holiday is on my usual non-working day?

Not under this policy.

10.3 Can I choose any substitute day?

The day must be agreed with and recorded by your manager.
